RAJAN INDUSTRIES

Mfrs of: Tractor, Combine & Diesel Engine Parts

COMPANY PROFILE

Rajan Industries is a Ludhiana (INDIA) based company was established in 1992 by Rajan Nanda. We are manufacturing tractor, combine & diesel engine parts. The company is run by technopreneurs who are professionally qualified with rich work experience. The knowledge and the experience gained are reflected in the products we make. We commit to give you the best of our services with our full technical support and efficient manpower.

WHY US?

We understand that not every customer is happy with a standardized version of the Agricultural and Tractor Equipment available in the market. For this reason, we are offering complete customization of our entire range of products in order to meet the specific requirements of our clients. This allows our customers to choose from a both our standardized and customized version of products and benefit from hassle-free agricultural experience. While customizing our products to suit the needs of our customers, we ensure that we do not compromise on the industry standards.
